Wm. Mullen, 5; A. C. Deane, 22. OLD POHICK CHURCH -At the suggestion of one of the tady vice regents of the Mount Vernon Association, the Bishop of the dio-cess has written the following appeal, which explains itself:

EIGHNOND, VA., April 2, 1890.
Poblick, the Mount Vernon parish church, erectd upwards of one handred years ago, under the adviship of Washington, on a site chosen by lead rship of Washington, on a site chosen by himself, and where he worshipped and served as warden and vestryman for more than twenty years is still in good condition, and attended by sers, is still in good condition, and attended by distribing Sunday school and congregation, it a taithful pastor. But the people are too for the rate an adoptive support for their minister. To enable them to do so and keep the veneral and socied edifice in repair, it is proposed to use a sum sufficient for a small endowment of the church. This Christian and patrictic object I and ally approve and commend to the liberality of who desire to impress the life and character that is her of his Country on the minds of the same generations.

Francis M. Whittle,
Bishop P. E. Church in Virginia.

Senouls Visited -As stated in the GA-Mary's Parochial and colored schoo's colay. At each school he was welcomed with great joy which found expression in churuses, addresses, vocal and in atal mosic and recitations. The Beshop was highly pleased with the efforts the pupils and addressed each school in to persevere in their efforts to acquire ducation and in the love and pracsee of solid virtue, entreating them ever to berthat while cultivating their minds. earls must always be kept pure.
